Report

1. Report in brief by Organizer / Coordinator / Convener:

The guest lecture is planned on 17-12-2016 after receiving permission letter from Madam through phone. We had a very detailed explanation from the madam about Introduction to Communication system and basic modulation techniques of Analog Communication.

The Lecture is very useful for the second year students since they have Analog Communications course in the present semester.

All the students are very happy after listening to the class.
