

REPORT ON SANKRANTHI SAMBHARALU – 2026

Event Name: Sankranti Sambharalu

Date: 9th January 2026

Venue: College Campus

Organized By: Student Head Boys and Head Girls of All Branches

Introduction

The festival of Sankranti, one of the most significant harvest festivals of India, was celebrated with great enthusiasm and traditional spirit on 9th January 2026 in our college campus. This year's celebration was special and remarkable as the entire event was planned, coordinated, and executed by the Student Head Boys and Head Girls of all branches, reflecting exemplary student leadership and unity.

The event aimed to preserve cultural heritage, promote traditional values, and encourage active student participation.

Inauguration Ceremony

The event was formally inaugurated by the respected Principal of Ramachandra College of Engineering, Dr. M. Muralidhara Rao, who lit the traditional Bhogi Mantalu to mark the beginning of the celebrations.

In his inaugural address, he appreciated the initiative taken by the student leaders in organizing the entire event independently. He emphasized the importance of celebrating Indian traditions while balancing academic excellence and encouraged students to actively participate in cultural activities that strengthen unity and teamwork.

The inauguration set a festive and energetic tone for the entire celebration.

Event Highlights

Each department took responsibility for organizing a traditional activity representing the essence of Sankranti.

ECE Department – Rangoli Competition

The ECE Department organized a vibrant Rangoli Competition, where students created colourful and intricate rangoli designs symbolizing harvest, prosperity, and rural traditions. The beautifully decorated campus added charm to the celebration.

EEE Department – Bommala Koluvu

The EEE Department arranged an impressive Bommala Koluvu (Display of Dolls) showcasing mythological themes, village life, and cultural heritage. The arrangement reflected creativity and devotion to tradition.

Mechanical Department – Kodi Pandyalu

The Mechanical Department conducted a symbolic and cultural representation of Kodi Pandyalu in a safe and organized manner. The activity added excitement and traditional flavor to the celebrations.

Civil Department – Traditional Hut Setup

The Civil Department constructed a traditional village-style hut, demonstrating rural architecture and construction skills. It became one of the main attractions and a popular photo spot.

AI & ML Department – Pongal Preparation

The AI & ML Department organized the traditional Pongal Preparation Ceremony. Pongal was prepared in decorated clay pots surrounded by sugarcane and turmeric plants, symbolizing prosperity and gratitude for the harvest.

AI & DS Department – Desi Dance

The AI & DS Department presented a lively Desi Dance Performance. Students performed folk dances in traditional attire, filling the atmosphere with energy and cultural vibrancy.

IoT Department – Kite Flying

The IoT Department organized an enthusiastic Kite Flying Activity. The sky was filled with colorful kites, creating a joyful and festive environment across the campus.

CSE Department – Bhogi Mantalu & Gangireddula Vinyasam

The CSE Department arranged the traditional Bhogi Mantalu along with Gangireddula Vinyasam, representing rural customs associated with Sankranti. These activities highlighted the agrarian roots and cultural richness of the festival.

Student Leadership & Coordination

The most commendable aspect of Sankranthi Sambharalu 2026 was that the entire event was successfully managed by the Student Head Boys and Head Girls of all branches. They efficiently handled:

- Planning and execution
- Inter-departmental coordination
- Resource management
- Stage arrangements
- Discipline and hospitality

Their dedication and teamwork ensured the smooth conduct of all activities.

Participation & Response

The event witnessed enthusiastic participation from students and faculty members across all departments. The campus was beautifully decorated with rangoli designs, traditional huts, festive music, and cultural performances, creating a lively and joyful atmosphere.

Faculty members appreciated the students' efforts and praised their leadership, creativity, and cultural involvement.

Conclusion

Sankranthi Sambharalu 2026 was a grand success. The celebration not only preserved and promoted Indian cultural heritage but also strengthened unity, leadership skills, and collaboration among students.

The event concluded with happiness, cultural pride, and unforgettable memories, making it one of the most remarkable celebrations of the academic year 2025–26.
